Consent and information

We would like to thank them for their participation in this research, carried out by the PhD students Claudia Negri-Ribalta, René Noël and Rosa Velasquez

Through this form, we would like to inform you about your rights as a participant, our obligations as researchers and to obtain your consent for the use of the data you provided us in the focus group.

The form is important to the study, as it explains to you how we will use the information, that you understand your rights in participating, and that you agree to the conditions.

Therefore, we require that you read, consent, and agree to the following document:

- I voluntarily agree to participate in this focus group.
- I agree that this focus groups may be recorded and transcribed.
- I understand that I have the right to withdraw my consent to the use of the data up to one weeks after agreeing to the focus group form.
- I understand that the transcripts will be anonymized and that all personally identifiable data (such as name, gender, age, sex) will be deleted so that I cannot be identified. This means that names will be disguised or changed, and personally identifiable data will be modified.
- I understand that the recordings will be destroyed once transcripts are made.
- I declare that this focus group is of no direct benefit to me.
- The purpose and nature of the research has been explained to me and my questions have been addressed.
- I understand that I have the right to access the data while it is being stored, if it is possible to be identified.
- I understand that these data will be used for research purposes.
- I understand that this data could be reused for the thesis of students Claudia Negri-Ribalta, René Noël and Rosa Velasquez
- Some parts of the focus groups might be shared and made available, understanding the transparency principle of research. However, this data will not contain personal data not can it be linked to myself.
- This data is following the European GDPR regulation.
